LITERACY TEACHER INTERVIEW

Nicole Platos, literacy teacher at Miguel Delibes school since 2016. She is from Greensburg, Pennsylvania.

She loves Spain but she misses a lot of things from her country; her family and friends, some food and sportive events...

She became a teacher because he had a great Spanish teacher when she was in High School that made a great impact on her and she decided that she would like to try to make this big impact on children's life one day.
